LEATHER CRACK FILLER

PART# LCF-4 4oz

Terrific for slight imperfections like hairline cracks, or use to seal an area where the leather has worn off (porous areas). Quick dry time, non-sandable. Gray.

Part #	Retail	SALE
LCF-4 4oz	$ 12.95	$ 7.25

LEATHER PRIMER

PART# LP-2 2oz

Just a drop will do! Creates a barrier between water and solvent based products, allowing dye to adhere to leather.

Part #	Retail	SALE
LP-2 2oz	$ 6.95	$ 4.25

EZ FILL

PART# EZ-4 4oz

Our most popular leather filler. For small to medium sized cracks. Air dry, but can use a blow drier if needed. Creates a soft, flexible, strong repair that can be sanded.

Crème colored.

Part #	Retail	SALE
EZ-4 4oz	$ 12.95	$ 7.25

LEATHER REPAIR ADHESIVE

PART# LRA 2oz, 8oz

Pink glue that is not only a fantastic adhesive for sub patches, but can also be used at the base of cracks or on hairline cracks. Sandable, stays flexible.

Part #	Retail	SALE
LRA-2 2oz	$ 7.95	$ 4.75
LRA-8 8oz	$ 25.95	$ 14.95

LEATHER SKIN FILLER

PART# LSF-4 4oz

For small hairline cracks or creases. Non-sandable, but spreads and feathers out easily. Brown.

Part #	Retail	SALE
LSF-4 4oz	$ 13.95	$ 7.25

LEATHER REPAIR COMPOUND

PART# LRC-4 4oz

Low heat cure for leather and heat sensitive vinyl. Great for door panels, too! Great adhesion and flexibility. Grain with a pad or spray on texture. White.

Part #	Retail	SALE
LRC-4 4oz	$ 9.95	$ 4.75

LEATHER DRY FILL

PART#LDF 1oz, 4oz

Ground leather fibers. Use with LRA to make your own paste for holes, tears and cracks. Sandable.

STATE OF THE INDUSTRY

Information from across the Nation

Below, you'll find information that we've gathered from customers across the nation:

Houston, We Have a Problem....

Hurricane season has struck many of our friends in Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, Florida and other southern coastal states and our thoughts are with them all.

State of the Industry

Dealerships are closing down or reorganizing from California to Florida. Some dealerships are being forced to reduce inventory, while plans to build large auto-malls are on hold in other areas. Some dealerships are not allowing any work to be done on a car until it sells, while other dealerships just don't have any new inventory for work to be done on. Our industry is normally recession-proof, but not this time.

South East

Asheville, NC: one interior tech reports that business is down 50-60%, with 2 dealerships having closed down. Another tech reports business down about 30%.

Raleigh, NC: one interior tech is now out of the business and has a regular job.

Central Florida: one interior tech stated that business is down so much that he had to go out and get a part time job.

Eastern Florida: interior techs report business down by about 30%.

Charleston, SC: interior techs are covering a larger area just to keep their heads above water because the competition is so fierce.

Savannah, GA: interior techs report that business is holding steady with not much growth.

North East

New Jersey: interior tech reports that while interior repairs have gone down, his PDR has more than doubled. In fact, many who do both interior and exterior across the country have reported that exteriors are doing much better than interiors.

Midwest

Nebraska: business is holding steady with not much growth.

Texas: Business is holding steady in areas, but has slowed in others.

Illinois: Northern Chicago area is holding and doing pretty good.

West

Las Vegas, NV: interior techs say that not only are SUV sales dead, but not a whole lot of cars are moving period.

Northern California: Vacaville Ford & Elk Grove Ford have closed.

Southern California: Reseda Dodge has closed.

Arizona: interior techs report that exterior paint and body work doing well, especially bumpers, however interior work has slowed down.

While many areas have slowed down, things in general are starting to hold steady, with small spots of business picking up. PDR & exterior technicians are doing well. The general feeling is that the industry could improve after the election. Give us a call and tell us how things are in your area. (800 441-3326) We will do a new report for you after the first of the year.
